DOES IT MEAN WAR.

A somewhat sensational dispatch comes from Washington, which, if true, would indicate that the authorities anticipate trouble ahead. It is said that there is considerable speculation in Washington, and especially among Army circles, in regard to the meaning of Adjutant General Drum's desire for information concerning the militia of the United States. He is preparing a document, which will be sent to the Adjutant-Generals of the various States, requesting to be informed of the number and equipments of the militia regiments of their sections. Their views are further asked as to the length of time that would be necessary to put an armed, organized force of 200,000 men in the field. In some quarters it is stated that this action is taken with a view to being prepared for an emergency in case of the general uprising of the labor elements of the country. Others assert that despite denials of the State Department, there is a prospect of trouble with Mexico on account of German influence, and that the Adjutant-General's trip West showed him the advisability of having a well-equipped army ready for such an event. Considerable secrecy is maintained at the War Department concerning the matter and any attempt made to unearth it is met by officials with an ominous shake of the head.

Gorham's Persistence.

The New York Tribune's Washington special says: It is understood George C Gorham and friends claim that his nomination for Secretary of the Senate in the caucus of 1881 is binding on the Republican and Re-adjuster Senators in the next Senate. With this understanding, Gorham soon retires from the editorial chair. This is known and felt to be a matter of very great embarrassment by a majority of the Republican Senators, some of whom will, in all probability, refuse to vote for Gorham either in or out of a caucus. It is certain another caucus must be held before any effort is made to elect officers, for of the thirty eight Republicans who will compose it, twelve, or nearly one-third, were members of the caucus which nominated Gorham.

Valuation of Humboldt Property.

The Wionemoo Silver State says County Assessor Perkins, of Humboldt, has about completed his assessment lists and is now at work on the assessment roll. He has assessed the Central Pacific Railroad at $10,000 per mile, an increase of $1,000 per mile over last year. It is believed that the Railroad Company will stand the raise without a lawsuit. The increase in the assessed valuation of real and personal property will be nearly a quarter of a million dollars more than last year. Exclusive of the railroad assessment the assessed value of real and personal property is about $100,000 more than in 1882. Real estate is given in at a much higher figure than heretofore.

As it Should Be.

The higher as well as the general education of women is daily receiving more attention. Men of position and refinement everywhere recognize the fact that mere superficial knowledge is not all that woman requires. When those whose opinions always find expression in effective action give their support to any good movement its success is assured. Pope Leo has lately announced that he favors the education of girls, those of the highest as well as those of more modest social condition. He thinks woman is destined to be the most powerful aid to the well-being of human race, and that for this end the highest condition of both heart and mind is needed.

Mackay in New York.

The World says: John W. Mackay, the bonanza millionaire king, visited Wall street last Friday, and among others, visited Senator Kernan. He did not call at the Mining Exchange, but brokers there are interested in the report that he and James Keene will attempt to put some life into mining speculations which have been so stagnant of late in the city.

Wadsworth has a big run on cronk beer.

A COLONIZATION SCHEME.

A Powerful Secret Organization of Leading Negroes—A Scheme to Colonize in South Carolina and Elsewhere.

Private advices to the Charleston News and Courier from Washington report the formation there of a powerful secret organization of leading negroes, having for its object the colonization of negroes in South Carolina and elsewhere. Many members of the organization, it is said, hold lucrative Government offices, and Fred Douglass is understood to favor the scheme. Meetings are constantly being held in Washington to advance the movement, but with such secrecy as to not attract public attention. It is proposed to keep the matter quiet until a definite plan of action has been determined upon, and a desirable place of settlement fixed. The whole scheme will then be suddenly made public and fully discussed at a mass meeting of the race in Washington and elsewhere. This organization is of especial concern to South Carolina, as it is claimed the negroes there already vastly outnumber the whites. It would be easier to colonize them there and crowd the whites than to remove them to the far West. It is proposed to select all that territory lying between the Edisto and the Savannah Rivers, and extending from the sea to Aiken county, buy up the lands and encourage the negroes to immigrate there from all parts of the country. It is represented that much landed property in that part of the State is already owned by negroes, and that the soil and climate are well adapted to the occupations and interests of the race. The eastern part of Indian Territory and a portion of Texas, bounded on the south by the tributaries of the Red River, are also suggested as a suitable place for colonizing negroes. Some four settlements are on the Yazoo River in Mississippi, but the South Carolina project is said to be the most popular. Nothing is known in Washington of the reported scheme. There has been much discontent among the negroes of that State for the past four years, and several colonies have gone to Kansas, but there has been no movement of colored people to South Carolina.

An Old Debt.

A demand has been presented to the Secretary of the Treasury on behalf of the State of Virginia, that he deposit with the Treasurer of Virginia $73,289, being the fourth installment of the amount directed to be deposited by the 13th and 14th sections of the Act of June, 1836, entitled "An Act to regulate the deposit of public money." By these sections it was directed that the surplus that should be in the treasury January 1, 1837, after receiving $5,000,000, which surplus was deposited with the States, twenty-eight in number, according to their representations, in four quarterly installments, during the year 1837, and to remain with such States until necessarily called for by the Secretary to appropriate by Congress. The first three installments were so deposited, but the payment of the fourth was subsequently postponed by Congress until January 1st, 1839, there not being a sufficient sum in the Treasury for that object. To the charges which had been before imposed by Congress, Secretary Levi Woodbury failed to make a final deposit, stating, however, that he should feel bound to make it whenever there should thereafter be a sufficient sum in the Treasury which could be so applied.

There has never been since that, until within the present decade, funds sufficient in the United States Treasury not subject to other charges, that could be so used. Such deposit has never been made with the States. In 1841 the Act of June 23, 1836, was repealed, expressly reserving, however, the thirteenth and fourteenth sections, and it is contended that they are now in force.

This claim involves the question of deposit with other States which amounts to over $9,000,000. Attorneys for the State of Virginia claim to have documents and other evidences showing it to be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make this deposit on the demand of the State, and will urge the question before him on his return.

The attorneys are proceeding under the Act of the Virginia Legislature, authorizing contracts to be made for the collection of this and other dues.

The Elko Independent says that the assessor of Elko county was authorized to take $50 as the personal property of John Robinson's circus. It was like finding so much.

PERIAN HOSPITALITY.

The Second Edition of Minister Benjamin's Reception in Teheran.

The JOURNAL readers will remember the gorgeous description, telegraphed a few days ago, of the magnificent Oriental reception tendered by the Shah of Persia to Minister Benjamin on the occasion of his entry into Teheran. Among other things he was presented with a fine horse from his Majesty's stables.

The secret appears in Mr. Benjamin's dispatch No. 2; after the show the high cockalorum of the Shah dropped in to see Mr. Benjamin. The latter felt complimented on the efforts of the ruler of the country to make him feel at home. The high cockalorum, however, soon proceeded to business, and for a time our Minister was unable to understand what this officer was driving at. He declared that his royal master, the brother of the sun, moon, and stars, had seen fit to try and make things pleasant for Mr. Benjamin and of course the latter would make prompt and generous returns. It took our Minister some time to acquire a full-orbed view of the situation, but he was finally enabled to, and learned what the customs of the country were. In plain English, a full equivalent was wanted for the horse and most of the other expenses of his reception. Mr. Benjamin still thinks that the reception was a splendid affair, but he don't exactly see where he is to find a margin in the salary of $5,000 for many such evidences of sincere friendship for his native country.

Political

In his last letter to the Enterprise, from Austin, Alf. Doten sandwiches in the annexed political observations:

"Guyver Adams is a goin' ter succeed Jones as United States Senator," said Mr. Dadd, yesterday, in the course of a lively political conversation, "and Kaneen, that in Virginy, 's goin' ter be next Guyver. Don't yer forgit it, sonny, neither. We Democrats has got ye this time. We're a big lot o' tumble bugs, but you're the balls we're a rollin', and we're jest a goin' ter roll the hull Republican party plum outer of office next campaign. We're a settin' up our backs for a grand boost, and we'll roll ye, you bet." And the grizzled old pioneer went swaggering off down street with a triumphant roll, as though he had the thing already accomplished. There is no doubt that John S. Kaneen, the newly appointed Commissioner of Storey county, is literally Governor of that section; also that the Canavan dynasty has come to a conclusion satisfactory to both Republicans and Democrats. Kaneen can easily become popular enough to be Governor of the State, but Adams will have to study public policy more, and partisan policy less if he really would become a successful rival of Jones or any other substantially popular Republican candidate for United States Senator from Nevada.

Property of the Telegraph Company.

The plant of the Western Union Telegraph Company may not be worth more than one fourth of the company's nominal capital (say $20,000,000), but the business pays a profit of 7 per cent on $80,000,000. Its net earnings are about $6,000,000 a year. The English rule, says the Washington Republic, is that a property is worth twenty times its annual income; and by this rule, the property of the Western Union Telegraph Company would be worth $120,000,000. At its present market value it would only fetch about $64,000,000.

Will Accept the Position.

The Grass Valley Union says:

It is given out in an official manner that the Central Pacific Railroad Company and its leased lines will accept the new schedule of fares adopted by the Railroad Commissioners. This will be a sensible act on the part of the railroad companies, and be a virtual admission of the authority of the State to make such regulations, which is something that the railroad incorporations have never yet accepted. It will be a decided step in advance in settling the railroad dispute in California.

The "Pennington" letters to the Tribune have ceased contemporaneously with the "Democratic" letters to the Silver State. Why is this thus? —Carson Index.

When Ladies are Attractive.

All ladies know their faces are attractive when free from pimples. Parker's Ginger Tonic is popular among them because it banishes impurities from blood and skin and makes the face glow with health.

An attractive, youthful appearance secured by using Parker's Hair Balm to all who are getting gray.

THE CRADLE.

CRONIN—At Clark's Station, August 11th, 1883, to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cronin, a son.

Weeding Them Out.

Since the first of January last sixty-five criminals have been hanged in the United States by due process of law, while seventy-five have been hanged or shot by mobs. Thirty-six of the lynchings were in the Southern States and thirty-five in the Northern States, and of these, sixteen were mobbed in Montana. These figures, the Reveille thinks, may not be nice statistics for a tea party, but they are interesting to a public that is very much tired of so many criminals.

A Pioneer Returned.

I. J. Griffith, of Utica Commandery N. Y., who arrived in San Francisco last week to attend the Conclave, was a Pacific Coast Pioneer. He is a printer by trade, and in the early days set type in the office of the Sacramento Times. He also worked in the office of the Alta and Bulletin, and was one of the founders of the Chronicle. He returned East in 1857 and is now at the head of the firm of Griffith, Griffin & Hoxie, Utica, New York.

The Eureka Leader suggests that a plank demanding cheap postal telegraphy would be a capital addition to any political platform. The Leader is therupon reminded by the Enterprise that the eighth resolution in the platform adopted by the last Nevada Republican State Convention reads as follows:

Resolved, That we are in favor of the Government of the United States establishing a postal telegraph service, and operating the same in connection with the Postoffice Department.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SLIGHT ODDS.
A Little Story With a Large Moral
—One Man Who Knew his own Business.

"No, my dear," said the venerable keeper of a country store to a timid little girl whose head scarcely came up to the level of the counter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red flannel, but we have some first rate New Orleans molasses." Softly hinting that she didn't think that would answer the purpose quite so well, the child went away in search of the article she wanted.

"Have you BENSON'S CAPOINE PLASTERS?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggist whose name could be given were it desired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbago, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as soon as it touches the skin."

"Not at present," replied the druggist, generally, "but, we have lots of plasters just as good. There is Allcock's, the Capocene and others—won't one of them do as well?"

"My dear sir," retorted the gentleman, with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against those articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what I want, and for nothing else. I may enlighten you, however, when I say that sometime ago, for another disease, of which the Capocene has since cured me, I tried all those you mention, with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficient, every one of them, the meaning act of the proprietors of some of them being this: that they make plasters with similar sounding names to deceive the unwary into believing they are the same thing. Experience taught me different. I'll go to the next man in your line. Good day."

Be on your guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPOINE cut cleanly in the middle of the plaster. All others are imitations.

POSTAL RATES.

The Changes to go into Effect in October Next.

On and after the first day of October, 1883, the rate of postage on domestic mail, matter of the first class will be reduced from three cents to two cents per half ounce or fraction thereof, as provided by act of Congress approved March 3, 1883. The Postal Department has adopted a new design for the two cent stamp—the head of Washington in profile, from Hondon's bust, being placed on a plain tablet; above the oval surrounding the head are the words, "United States Postage," and underneath the tablet are the words "Two Cents." The stamps will be printed in metallic red. The embossed stamps on the two-cent stamped envelopes will also bear the head of Washington.

A four-cent denomination of postage stamps and stamped envelopes to cover double postage under the new rates, will also be issued. The design embraces the head of Jackson, similar to that on the present two-cent stamp and envelopes. The prices of the envelopes exclusive of postage will remain the same as on the existing schedule. No change will be made in the postage due stamps. No arrangements have yet been made for the redemption of three-cent stamps and envelopes in the hands of Postmasters, or for the exchange by Postmasters of such stamps and envelopes in the hands of private holders. Until further notice from the department Postmasters will not make exchanges for the public, nor will they return the department their stock remaining on their hands on and after the 1st of October. The three-cent stamp may be used in combination with other denominations on letters requiring more than one rate of postage, and on packages of third and fourth-class matter. The two and three-cent stamped envelopes of the present design will continue to be valid after the 1st of October, and must be accepted in payment of postage when offered in appropriate amounts.

The drop letter rate of postage will remain the same as now—that is, two cents per half ounce, or fraction thereof, at free delivery offices, and one cent at all other offices, and no change is made in the rates of postage on second, third and fourth-class matter.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. G. W. H. Budden received a dispatch Sunday, from the Coroner, at Weaverville, California, announcing the death and burial of her husband, G. W. H. Budden. The dispatch gave no particulars, simply stating that Mr. Budden had died and was buried in that place on Saturday last. This is a sad blow to Mrs. Budden, who is left with several small children. Mr. Budden was in Weaverville following the vocation of photographer.

At Home.

Hon. R. M. Daggett came up from San Francisco yesterday on his way to Virginia. The train being detained about an hour at this station gave the Minister an opportunity to meet and greet his Reno friends. Under the law each foreign Minister is allowed two months vacation in each year, and Mr. Daggett is now taking advantage of his. After visiting the Comstock he will remain a few days in Reno before returning to his field of labor.

The State Institute.

The Index says Messrs Oman and Bowen, professional teachers are in this city working up a boom for Carson as the proper place for holding the Teachers Institute this Fall, but thinks, inasmuch as Reno has offered the best inducements to teachers to come, it will doubtless be named as the place. The Index has already been named as the place, and the last week in August the time.

Good Crops.

E. W. Crutcher, who arrived from Paradise yesterday, says everybody in the valley is busy either making hay or harvesting grain. He will stack some sixteen or seventeen hundred tons of hay, and others will put up proportionate quantities. The grain crop is better than the average, and farmers say it is the hottest season ever experienced in the valley.

Will Probably Consolidate.

Cornucopia Lodge No. 29 I. O. O. F., has voted to propose to consolidate with Tuscarora Lodge No. 30. Under the rules of the order, two weeks must elapse before the latter can take action on the proposition, although in all probability it will be accepted without opposition. The joint membership of the two lodges is 69.

The father and mother of E. W. Crutcher, who have been visiting their son and his family for several weeks, left yesterday for California, accompanied by their grandchildren, Annie Crutcher and Miss Conyers.

Two drunken men were arrested and taken before Justice Bowman yesterday morning. He knew them to be hard working men and not wishing to send them to jail released them on their own recognizance.

A death like silence prevails at the Court House, broken at intervals by the stentorian voice of Deputy Sheriff Pine calling prisoners from their quiet retreat in the jail yard for refreshments.

W. C. Craig, of Lovelock, was in town yesterday. He has sold his ranch on the Humboldt Meadows to Marsden, and will shortly move his family to Reno.

The wife of U. S. Senator W. B. Allison committed suicide by drowning herself in the Mississippi river, near Dubuque, some time during Sunday night.

"FAIR GIRL GRADUATES," Whose sedentary lives increase those troubles peculiar to women, should use Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which is an unfailing remedy. Sold by druggists.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, eases wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-awf-lyr.

Knights Templar.

The Pilgrims of the San Francisco Club of 1883, Knights Templar, stationed at Philadelphia, arrived in Reno yesterday morning in two Pullman Palace cars attached to the express train, en route to San Francisco. The party is composed of about seventy-five prominent Philadelphia Masons, and their families, and is accompanied by a delegation of St. John's Commandery of Wilmington, Delaware, also in a special car. The party came by special train Philadelphia to Ogden and were then attached to the regular train. They were loud in their praises of the kind reception and generous hospitalities extended to them all along their route. The party travel under the immediate direction and supervision of Joseph S. Wright, President of the Club.

The August Star.

Saturn is a morning star and wins a place at the head of the roll as the most interesting of the solar brotherhood during August, though he is the second in his appearance in the field. Rising now soon after midnight he is beautiful to behold, as he threads his way on the celestial concave while every successive rising adds to the brilliancy of his appearance and brings him earlier on the course. At the end of the month he will be seen peeping above the horizon at 10:30 o'clock. Jupiter, Mars, Venus, and Neptune are morning stars, while Mercury and Uranus are stars of the evening.

Deservedly Popular.

Unless it had great merit Parker's Ginger Tonic could not be so popular. Its sale has spread remarkably everywhere, because invalids find it gives them new life and vigor when other medicines fail entirely.

The Index says that Marlette Lake, now owned by the Virginia Water Company, originally covered about thirty acres. Mr. Marlette built a dam that caused the lake to overflow about three hundred acres. Then the Water Company enlarged the dam and caused the water to overflow about five hundred acres. The lake is now reported to be full of fish—too many fish for the amount of water the lake contains.

There was a bit of a squabble yesterday on Commercial Row between a colored boy and a white man. The damages were nominal and no arrests were made.
